

Ashburton College

Individual Excellence in a Supportive Learning Environment

Code of Conduct: Cultural & Sporting

Involvement in extra-curricular activities at Ashburton College is a privilege, therefore any students representing the College must adhere to the following expectations:

- Represent the College showing the AshColl Way - Quality, Pride and Respect.
- Attend classes on time during the college day (unjustified absences of greater than 15% may endanger your ability to participate).
- Be polite, courteous and respectful.
- Respect the decisions of, and cooperate with, the adults/officials in charge.
- Do not get involved in any situation that negatively affects the reputation of our College.
- The drinking of alcohol, smoking, vaping or the taking of non-prescription drugs is prohibited.
- Perform to the best of their ability, within the rules and the spirit of the competition/event.
- Always wear the correct Ashburton College uniform and look after it.

The Parents/Caregivers and the student agree that while they are representing Ashburton College all College rules and the expectations in this code of conduct apply.

Any student who indulges in conduct, which in the opinion of the adult/official in charge amounts to serious misconduct, may be sent home at the parent/guardian's expense. This will be decided in consultation with the Senior Leadership Team.

Serious misbehaviour will be referred to the Board of Trustees.

PHOTOGRAPHS

If students upload photos to their personal social media accounts, we ask that they remember they are representing Ashburton College and post only appropriate photos and videos.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I have read the above expectations and agree:

1. My child will accept responsibility for their behaviour and acknowledge they will be sent home (at the parent/guardian's expense) if they do not adhere to all rules.
2. That should they break the above stated expectations they are subject to the provisions for discipline that apply to all Ashburton College students.
3. I confirm I have read the contract and agree with the terms within.
4. I confirm I have read through the contract with my child, and they agree with the terms within.
